Article 7 A firm conducting centralized custody, settlement, and clearing of Short-Term Bills is not allowed to engage in the above business until receiving approval from the competent authority. However, if the transfer or clearing business involves large sums, approval from the Central Bank of China ("CBC") shall also be required.

The conditions and procedures for applying for the approval referred to in the preceding paragraph, the conditions under which such approval will be revoked, and regulations governing the relevant business scope, capital and staff, as well as other relevant matters, shall be prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

Article 8 No firm other than a Bills House may use a name that may lead the public to believe that the firm is a Bills House.

The name of a Bills Finance Company shall include the words "Bills Finance".

Article 9 The minimum paid-in capital of a Bills Finance Company shall be as determined or adjusted, as applicable, by the Competent Authority based on economic conditions.

In the event that a Bills Finance Company's paid-in capital falls below such minimum [as the result of] an adjustment as above, the Competent Authority shall prescribe a period of time within which such Bills Finance Company shall increase its capital [to meet the adjusted requirement]. If a Bills Finance Company fails to increase its capital within this period its operating approval shall be revoked.

Article 10 If, during any given month, a director, supervisor, manager and/or any person who holds more than ten percent (10%) of the issued voting shares of a Bills Finance Company changes its/his/her shareholding, such person shall notify the company of the change by the fifth (5th) day of the following month and the company shall, prior to the fifteenth (15th) day of such month, report the change to the Competent Authority or the institution designated by the Competent Authority.

The term "such person" as used in the preceding paragraph shall include a spouse, minor children and any nominee.

If shares held by persons referred to in Paragraph 1 [of this article], are pledged, the pledgor shall notify the Bills Finance Company thereof immediately and the Bills Finance Company shall report such pledge to the Competent Authority or the institution designated by the Competent Authority within five (5) days after the date of the pledge.

Article 11 Guidelines for qualifications of the responsible person of a Bills House and other guidelines which responsible persons must follow shall be prescribed by the Competent Authority.

Neither the responsible person nor any staff member of a Bills House shall accept, under any pretense, commissions, rebates or any other unwarranted benefit from customers, buyers/sellers, guarantors or others.

Neither the responsible person nor any staff member of a Bills Finance Company may concurrently hold a position in another Bills Finance Company except in the capacity of a director or supervisor of an invested Bills Finance Company or financial institution owing to an investment relationship and then only with the prior approval of the Competent Authority.

Article 12 The business staff members of a Bills House shall be registered with the Bills Houses Association ("BHA") prior to commencing their work.

Regulations regarding the qualifications of the business staff of a Bills House, staff registration, training and other management matters [for such staff] shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority.

A person who has served on the business staff of a Bills House prior to this Act coming into effect shall register with the BHA within six (6) months for the day this Act comes into effect in order to continue in their position. No one may continue in their position after said (6) months absent registration with the BHA.

The business staff of a Bills House, who has registered pursuant to the preceding paragraph, shall achieve the qualifications referred to in Paragraph 2 [of this article] within three (3) years from the date this Act comes into effect. If he/she does not achieve such qualifications within said period, the BHA shall revoke his/her registration.

CHAPTER II ESTABLISHMENT AND AMENDMENT

Article 13 In order to establish a Bills Finance Company, the applicant shall submit an application containing the following information to the Competent Authority for approval:

If the provision of any of the above business involves foreign exchange, then CBC's approval shall also be required. If the provision of the above business involves government or corporate bonds, approval from the Competent Securities Authority shall also be required.

A Bills Finance Company may not conduct any business not permitted by the Competent Authority.

Article 22 If a Bills Finance Company certifies, underwrites, brokers or trades in Short-Term Bills or bonds, as referred to in the first paragraph of the preceding article, it shall record the time, type, amount and customer name for each transaction.

A financial institution concurrently engaging in Bills Finance business shall be subject to the preceding paragraph.

Article 23 The minimum trading par value of Short-Term Bills shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

The par value of a Commercial paper underwritten by a Bills House, shall be prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

Article 24 A Bills Finance Company trading in Short-Term Bills or bonds, as referred to in Article 21, Paragraph 1, shall publicly disclose the bid and offer prices pursuant to rules [to be] issued by the Competent Authority.

A Bills Finance Company which has committed to a price and/or quantity shall execute the trade at said price and in said quantity.

The preceding two paragraphs shall also apply to financial institutions concurrently operating a Bill House business and trading in Short-Term Bills.

Article 25 A Bills House that certifies, underwrites, brokers, trades, guarantees or endorses Short-Term Bills or bonds, and conducts other businesses, etc. shall, unless otherwise required by law or by the Competent Authority, keep confidential all information regarding a customer's finances, business, and trading activities.

Article 26 Short-Term Bills may be issued in physical or dematerialized forms. Except for treasury bills, short-term bills issued in physical forms shall be delivered to the central depository custody institution for custody; those issued in dematerialized forms shall be registered by the central depository custody institution for issuance.

Settlement for transaction in Short-Term Bills under the custody of or registered with the central depository custody institution as referred to in the preceding paragraph, shall be effected through book-entry transfer. The guidelines governing the book-entry transfer operation and the issuance, registration, and relevant matters for short-term bills issued in dematerialized forms shall be prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

Short-Term Bills held or registered in the central custody institution may be pledged and the creation of the pledge may be effected through book-entry transfer and Article 908 of the Civil Code shall not be applicable.

Transfer, inheritance and pledge of the Short-term Bills registered by the central custody institution for issuance shall not be valid against any third party unless such transfer, inheritance and pledge of the Short-Terms Bills has been registered under the guidelines established by the central competence authority referred to in the Paragraph 2.

In the event that the payment for the dematerialized short-term bills registered by the central custody institution is dishonored upon their maturity, the central custody institution shall issue the certifying documents of debt and non-payment to the holder.

The certifying documents of non-payment received by the aforesaid holder through notification shall be as the protest in the Law of Negotiable Instruments.

In the case that the dematerialized short-term bills issued in the forms of the promissory notes of a company or a state-run business is dishonored by non-payment upon their maturity, and the holder thereof and upon received the aforesaid certifying documents of debt and non-payment, the holder may, in accordance with Article 123 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, petition a competent court for a ruling granting compulsory execution.

Article 27 A Bills House shall conduct its certification business with the care of a good administrator.

The types of Short-Term Bills which [must] be certified by a Bills House shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority.

Article 28 Transaction terms for Short-Term Bills or bonds traded or held by a Bills House which are issued by a [related] enterprise listed below (Related Party), shall be not more favorable than the terms for similar transactions with similar [non-related] parties and shall be (i) guaranteed or accepted by a financial institution which has been rated at or above a certain rating [level prescribed by the Competent Authority] or (ii) issued by a Related Party issuer which is rated at or above a certain rating [level to be prescribed by a Competent Authority] by a credit rating agency. Except for negotiable time deposit certificates and financial bonds issued by a bank, the total amount [of the above Related Party issued Bills/bonds] a Bills House may hold shall be restricted. [The following are Related Parties]:

1. An Enterprise that is, itself or through a representative, a director or supervisor of a Bills House; or
2. A shareholder holding more than three percent (3%) of the paid-in capital of a Bills House, or an entity in which the responsible person of a Bills House serves as a director, supervisor, or manager.

The definition of transaction terms, similar [non-related] parties, total holding amount and required minimum ratings shall be prescribed by the competent authority after consulting with the CBC.

Article 29 When a Bills House underwrites, guarantees or, endorses Commercial papers, it shall make a detailed and accurate credit assessment for the issuing company, confirm such company's issuing plans and sources of repayment, and obtain audited financial statements, to determine the amount of underwriting, guarantee, or endorsement. This requirement shall not apply to Commercial papers guaranteed by other financial institutions.

Article 30 The Competent Authority may prescribe restrictions on a Bills Finance Company that guarantees or endorses [multiple] Short-Term Bills of a single enterprise, single related person or the same related enterprises.

"Related enterprises" as used in the preceding paragraph shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in Articles 369-1 through 369-3, Article 369-9 and Article 369-11, of the Company Act; "same related person" shall mean an enterprise which has received a guarantee from a Bills Finance Company and another enterprise which has one of the following relationships with such enterprise:

1. The chairman or the manager [of the two enterprises] is the same or such persons are husband and wife or lineal relatives by blood;

Article 31 The total outstanding amount of guaranteed or endorsed Short-Term Bills by a Bills Finance Company shall be determined by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

In order to improve the operations of a Bills Finance Company, the Competent Authority may, after consulting with the CBC, when necessary, restrict the total outstanding amount of guarantees and endorsements for Short-Term Bills by a Bills Finance Company.

CHAPTER IV FINANCE

Article 32 A Bills Finance Company shall establish internal control systems and procedures for evaluating the quality of its assets, creation of loss reserves, clearing of the past due credit extensions and the disposition or transfer of bad debts. Applicable regulations with respect to the above system and procedures shall be established by the Competent Authority.

Article 33 In order to improve the financial condition of Bills Houses, the Competent Authority may, after consulting with the CBC, when necessary, impose restrictions on the business offered by, and the financial ratios of, a Bills House.

If a Bills House fails to comply with the restrictions referred to in the preceding paragraph may have the distribution of dividends restricted or face other punishment as decided by the Competent Authority.

Article 34 A Bills Company shall, at the time it distributes its profits for each fiscal year, set aside thirty percent (30%) of its after-tax profits as a legal reserve.

Unless and until the accumulated legal reserve equals a Bills Company's paid-in capital, the maximum cash dividends which may be distributed [each year] shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of a Bills Finance Company's paid-in capital. Once the accumulated legal reserve equals or exceeds a Bills Company's paid-in capital, the foregoing paragraph shall not apply.

In addition to the required legal reserve, a Bills Finance Company may set aside a special reserve in accordance with its Articles of Incorporation or a resolution of its shareholders.

Article 35 At the end of each fiscal year, each Bills Finance Company shall prepare and submit its annual report, business report, balance sheet, property inventory, income statement, statement of shareholder's equity, cash flow statement, the determination of profit distribution or make up of losses and other items designated by the Competent Authority to the Competent Authority for recordation, within fifteen (15) days after such reports are approved by an annual shareholders meeting. The matters to be included in such annual report shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority.

A Bills Finance Company shall publish its balance sheet, income statement, statement of shareholders' equity, cash flow statement and other items specified by the Competent Authority in a daily newspaper in the place where such Bills Finance Company is located or in such other manner as may be designated by the Competent Authority; provided, that, if a Bills Finance Company complies with Article 36 of the Securities Exchange Act, the above publication shall not be required.

The reports and statements required to be published under the preceding paragraph shall be audited and certified by a certified public accountant.

Article 36 A Bills House shall post with the CBC or in a depository bank designated by the CBC a bond in cash, government bonds, financial bonds, corporate bonds or other bonds or notes acceptable by the CBC. The amount, purpose and administration related to such bond shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

Article 37 The tenor and total outstandings amount of "inter market" borrowing by a Bills Finance Company from financial institutions shall be prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

Article 38 A Bills House engaging in repo and reverse repo transactions shall do so in accordance with a written agreements and on the dates agreed to in such written agreement.

The aggregate transaction amount for the transactions described in the preceding paragraph shall be as determined by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

Article 39 The total amount of corporate bonds that can be issued by a Bills Finance Company shall be set by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC. Article 247 of the Company Act and Article 28-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act shall not apply to such issues.

Article 40 A Bills Finance Company shall not invest in other enterprises. However, in connection with a government economic development plan, or financial policy and with the Competent Authorities approval, a Bills Company may invest in financial related enterprises, enterprises related to its business, or enterprises permitted to be invested in by the Competent Authority prior to the promulgation of this Act. The counterparties, amount, management and other matters related to such investments shall be subject to the regulations promulgated by the Competent Authority.

A Bills Finance Company investment in bonds and derivatives shall be subject to restrictions prescribed by the Competent Authority after consulting with the CBC.

A Bills Finance Company may invest not more than thirty percent (30%) of its net worth at the time such investment is made in real estate for its own use.

A Bills Company shall not invest in real estate other than for its own use, unless:

1. A substantial portion of the real estate is for its own use;
2. The real estate will be for its own use in the near future; or
3. A substantial portion of the originally owned and later redeveloped real estate is for its own use.

A Bills Finance Company may not invest more than ten percent (10%) of its net worth in real estate not for its own use in accordance with the exceptions in the preceding paragraph. The total amount that a Bills Finance Company may invest in real estate not for its own use plus the total amount a Bills Finance Company invest in real estate for its own use shall not exceed thirty percent (30%) of a Bills Finance Company's net worth at the time of the investment in said real estate.

Should a Bills Finance Company enter into a real estate transaction with an entity in which the Bills Finance Company holds more than three percent (3%) of the paid-in capital, or with the responsible person(s) or staff members or major shareholders of the Bills Finance Company, or with an interested party of the Bills Finance Company's responsible person, the Bills Finance Company shall do so at arms length and obtain the consent of more than three-quarters (3/4) of the Bills Finance Company's directors present at a board meeting where at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors are present.

Article 41 The ratio between equity capital and risk weighted assets of a Bills Finance Company shall not be less than eight percent (8%). If a Bills Finance Company is required by the Competent Authority to produce consolidated financial statements, such Bills Finance Company shall also meet the above ratio requirement on a consolidated basis.

The formula for calculating the aforesaid equity capital and risk assets shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority. In order to improve the conduct of a Bills Finance Company's management, when necessary, the Competent Authority may set restrictions on a Bills Finance Company's risk assets.

If the actual ratio of a Bills Finance Company is lower than the required ratio referred to in Paragraph 1, above, the Competent Authority may prohibit such Bills Finance Company from distributing dividends and/or take other necessary actions. Applicable regulations with respect to the above matters shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority.

Article 42 The BHA shall establish a [model] accounting system to be used by Bills House pursuant to relevant laws and regulations and submit said system to the Competent Authority.

CHAPTER V SUPERVISION AND MANAGEMENT OF A BILLS HOUSE

Article 43 A Bills House shall establish an internal control and audit system. Applicable regulations with respect to such systems shall be as prescribed by the Competent Authority.

Article 44 A Bills House shall submit statements, reports and other documents related to its business to the Competent Authority within the period(s) of time prescribed by the Competent Authority or the CBC.

When necessary, the Competent Authority may order related parties of a Bills House to submit financial statements, property inventories and other relevant documents within a prescribed period of time.

Article 45 The Competent Authority may, at any time, appoint a designee or entrust an appropriate institution to examine the business, financial affairs and other activities of a Bills House or its related parties.

When necessary, the Competent Authority may appoint a specialist or technical person to verify, and report to the Competent Authority on the matters set out in the preceding paragraph. Any fees arising there from shall be borne by the relevant Bills House.

Article 46 A Bill House shall immediately evaluate and implement reform measures when so ordered by the Competent Authority. Measures which have been or are about to be implemented shall be reported to a directors meeting.

At the meeting referred to in the preceding paragraph the supervisors should be informed of the measures so ordered to be implemented.

The preceding two articles and the preceding two paragraphs [of this article] shall apply to the institutions referred to in Article 7, Paragraph 1, of this Act.

Article 47 If the accumulated losses of a Bills Finance Company exceed one-fifth (1/5) of its paid-in capital, it shall immediately report its financial situation and the causes of its losses to the Competent Authority and the CBC.

In the above-described circumstances, the Competent Authority may require the Bills Company to correct such capital deficit within a prescribed period of time or restrict its business. If the Bills Finance Company fails to correct such capital deficit within such prescribed period of time, it shall be ordered to suspend its business.

Article 48 With the approval of the Competent Authority, a Bills Finance Company may, during a fiscal year, reduce its capital and outstanding shares to the extent of its losses including losses during such by current fiscal year.

If a Bills Finance Company will issue new shares during a period when it is under supervision, taken over by officials appointed by the Competent Authority or had its business suspended by the Competent Authority, the Competent Authority may restrict the percentage of the new shares which may be subscribed to by current shareholders.

Article 49 Articles 32 through 33-2, and Articles 33-4 through 33-5 of the Banking Act shall apply to a Bills Finance Company which conducts a credit extension business by guaranteeing and endorsing Short-Term Bills.

Article 50 Unless the conditions of Article 40 [of this Act] applies, Article 76 of the Banking Act shall apply to the period of time within which a Bills Finance Company must dispose of shares or real estate acquired by foreclosure on a pledge or mortgage.

Article 51 Article 61-1 of the Banking Act shall apply to where there is a suspicion that a Bills Finance Company has violated laws and regulations or its Articles of Incorporation or has disturbed the sound operation [of the financial system].

Article 52 Articles 62 through 62-9 of the Banking Act shall apply to a Bills Finance Company which due to obvious adverse changes in its business or financial status, fails to pay its debts when due or risks damage to its customers' interests.

Article 53 Article 61 and Articles 65 through 69 of the Banking Act shall apply to a Bills Finance Company which is suspended or to be dissolved.

CHAPTER VI BILLs FINANCE COMPANIES ASSOCIATION

Article 54 A Bills House shall apply to join the BHA. The BHA shall not reject an applicant without due cause or impose inappropriate requirements on the applicant.

Article 55 In order to improve the sound operation, and protect the reputations, of its members the BHA shall:

1. Assist the Competent Authority to research and improve financial policy, laws and regulations;
2. Prescribe business regulations or self-disciplinary rules and submit to the Competent Authority for reference;
3. Mediate or resolve member disputes as necessary to meet the business needs of its members;
4. Handle other matters as designated by the Competent Authority; and
5. Provide other services necessary to meet the BHA's purposes.

Article 56 The BHA's activities shall be directed and supervised by the Competent Authority.

In the event that the directors or supervisor of the BHA violate any Act or regulation, violate the BHA's Articles of Incorporation, delay carrying out the BHA's obligations, abuse their authority, or act in bad faith, the Competent Authority shall order the BHA to correct such behavior or shall order the BHA to discharge those responsible.

Article 57 Amendments to articles of the BHA and minutes of board of directors or supervisors meetings, shall be submitted to the Competent Authority for reference.

CHAPTER VII PENAL PROVISIONS

Article 58 A Bills Finance Company's responsible person or staff member who violates his/her duty with the intent to gain improper benefit for himself/herself or for a third person and damages the Bills Company's assets or other interests shall be punishable by imprisonment for no less than three (3) years and no more than ten (10) years plus a fine of not less than ten million (NT$10,000,000) and not more than two hundred million New Taiwan Dollars (NT$200,000,000).
