participated in continuing professional education pursuant to the Regulations Governing Pre-job Training and Continuing Professional Education for Certified Public Accountants, and in the most recent year shall have participated in 20 or more hours of continuing education.

3. There shall be no less than six audit assistants, no less than two-thirds of whom possess the qualifications set forth in Article 18, paragraph 1, subparagraph 1 of the Certified Public Accountant Act, or have graduated from the accounting, banking, insurance, commerce, public finance and taxation, economics, business administration, or international trade related department of an institution at the junior college level or higher, or have passed the senior examination for accountants or auditors; and no less than one-third of whom are graduates of an accounting institute or university accounting department or program and have passed the CPA examination or the senior examination for accountants or auditors, or have graduated from the accounting, banking, insurance, commerce, public finance and taxation, economics, business administration, or international trade related department of an institution at the junior college level or higher and engaged in auditing work at a CPA firm for two full years.

4. The practice of a practicing CPA shall not have been suspended by any disposition under the Certified Public Accountant Act, the Securities and Exchange Act, or other acts or regulations, for which the suspension period has not yet been completed.

5. The firm shall have a common office.

6. The amount of authorized capital and amount of insurance purchased by an incorporated CPA firm shall comply with the relevant provisions of the Certified Public Accountant Act.

Article 5

Under any of the following circumstances, the FSC may deny approval for an application to conduct the business of auditing and attesting financial reports of public companies:

1. Non-compliance with the provisions of Article 4.
2. An internal control system has not been duly adopted, or the internal control system is not effectively implemented, without legitimate reason.
3. A practicing CPA has violated laws or regulations, or the CPA code of professional ethics, and the circumstances are serious.

Article 6

Unless otherwise provided in the laws or regulations, a CPA shall conduct the business of auditing and attesting financial reports of public companies in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

The audit report issued for auditing and attestation referred to in the preceding paragraph shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the CPA firm, the reference number of the FSC approval letter, and the name, and signature or seal, of the auditor, and the date; if the CPA firm is an incorporated CPA firm, it shall also affix its seal.

Article 7

When there is a change to any item in the application under Article 3, paragraph 1 of a CPA firm approved to conduct the business of auditing and attesting financial reports of public companies, it shall submit a report of that change to the FSC for recordation within 10 days from the date the change occurred, provided that for any change of CPA personnel, registration shall first be conducted pursuant to Article 12, paragraph 1 of the Certified Public Accountant Act, and subsequently reported to the FSC for recordation.

A joint CPA firm that submits a report pursuant to the preceding paragraph shall do so using the name of the joint CPA firm, and the responsible person of the firm shall affix his or her signature or seal.

An incorporated CPA firm that submits a report pursuant to paragraph 1 shall affix the seal of the incorporated CPA firm, and the board chairperson shall affix his or her seal.

Article 8

The joint CPA firm or incorporated CPA firm of CPAs conducting the business of auditing and attesting financial reports of public companies shall participate in the regularly scheduled peer reviews held by the National Federation of Certified Public Accountants Association of the R.O.C. ("NFCPAA").

The method by which the peer reviews of the preceding paragraph are conducted, and any change to that method, shall be drafted by the NFCPAA and reported to the FSC for approval.

Article 9

A CPA approved to conduct the business of auditing and attesting financial reports of public companies, and any audit assistant of that CPA's joint CPA firm or incorporated CPA firm, shall participate in continuing education on a regularly scheduled basis.

Article 10

Under any of the following circumstances, the FSC may void or revoke the approval it has given to a CPA, or to the CPA firm thereof, to conduct the business of auditing and attesting the financial report of public companies:

1. Any application item contains a false statement or violates Article 7, and the circumstances are serious.
2. The CPA firm does not meet the provisions of Article 4, subparagraphs 1, 3 or 5, is required to make improvement within a specified time period, and fails to do so.
3. The CPA firm refuses to participate in the peer review, or the result of the peer review is substandard, and it is required to make improvement within a specified time period but fails to do so.
4. The CPA fails to participate in continuing education pursuant to the Certified Public Accountant Act, is reported by the NFCPAA to the FSC, and suspended from practicing CPA business.
5. The amount of the authorized capital of, or insurance purchased by, an incorporated CPA firm does not comply with the relevant provisions of the Certified Public Accountant Act.
6. The FSC conducts an examination of the CPA firm and discovers a serious deficiency or violation, and the CPA firm fails to correct the problem by the time limit set by the FSC for doing so.
7. There is any other serious violation.

After the circumstances of any of the subparagraphs of the preceding paragraph have been extinguished for one full year, a CPA firm may submit evidentiary documentation to re-apply for approval pursuant to Article 3.

Article 11

These Regulations shall come into force from the date of issuance.
