Content: Article 1 These Directions are specially adopted to facilitate internships in the Republic of China ("Taiwan") by talented foreign persons at the level of junior college or higher during their academic study years, to promote mutual understanding and pave the way for future recruitment of talent. Article 2 An accounting firm may apply to the Financial Supervisory Commission (F Executive Yuan for foreign students at the level of junior college or higher ("foreign students") to visit Taiwan for internships, unless the is a likelihood that doing so would violate public order or good morals jeopardize national security, the public interest, public health, or po significant occupational accident hazard. After the FSC has given appro the foreign student who will come to Taiwan for the internship may press the approval letter to a Taiwan representative office abroad to apply visa; however, the representative office abroad retains the power to de ex officio whether to issue the visa. Article 3 The term "accounting firm" in these Directions refers to an accounting organized in accordance with the Certified Public Accountant Act. Article 4 Foreign students coming to Taiwan for an internship shall be limited to those enrolled at an overseas school that is listed on the Reference Li of Foreign Higher Educational Institutions compiled by the Ministry of Education. Article 5 A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followind documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student;	Title:	Directions for Accounting Firms Applying to Bring Foreign Students to the Republic of China for Internships Ch
Financial-Supervisory-Securities-VI-0950003733 of the Financial Supervi Commission, Executive Yuan; effective immediately Content: Article 1 These Directions are specially adopted to facilitate internships in the Republic of China ("Taiwan") by talented foreign persons at the level of junior college or higher during their academic study years, to promote mutual understanding and pave the way for future recruitment of talent. Article 2 An accounting firm may apply to the Financial Supervisory Commission (F Executive Yuan for foreign students at the level of junior college or higher ("foreign students") to visit Taiwan for internships, unless the is a likelihood that doing so would violate public order or good morals jeopardize national accurity, the public interest, public health, or po significant occupational accident hazard. After the FSC has given approt the foreign student who will come to Taiwan for the internship may press the approval letter to a Taiwan representative office abroad to apply f visa; however, the representative office abroad retains the power to de ex officio whether to issue the visa. Article 3 The term "accounting firm" in these Directions refers to an accounting organized in accordance with the Certified Public Accountant Act. Article 4 Foreign students coming to Taiwan for an internship shall be limited to those enrolled at an overseas school that is listed on the Reference Li of Foreign Higher Educational Institutions compiled by the Ministry of Education. Article 5 A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign	Date :	2006.08.04
 These Directions are specially adopted to facilitate internships in the Republic of China ("Taiwan") by talented foreign persons at the level of junior college or higher during their academic study years, to promote mutual understanding and pave the way for future recruitment of talent. Article 2 An accounting firm may apply to the Financial Supervisory Commission (F Executive Yuan for foreign students at the level of junior college or higher ("foreign students") to visit Taiwan for internships, unless the is a likelihood that doing so would violate public order or good morals jeopardize national accident hazard. After the FSC has given approx the foreign student who will come to Taiwan for the internship may press the approval letter to a Taiwan representative office abroad to apply f visa; however, the representative office abroad retains the power to de ex officio whether to issue the visa. Article 3 The term "accounting firm" in these Directions refers to an accounting organized in accordance with the Certified Public Accountant Act. Article 4 Foreign students coming to Taiwan for an internship shall be limited to those enrolled at an overseas school that is listed on the Reference Li of Foreign Higher Educational Institutions compiled by the Ministry of Education. Article 5 A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student; 	Legislative :	Financial-Supervisory-Securities-VI-0950003733 of the Financial Supervisor
<pre>is a likelihood that doing so would violate public order or good morals jeopardize national security, the public interest, public health, or po significant occupational accident hazard. After the FSC has given appro the foreign student who will come to Taiwan for the internship may press the approval letter to a Taiwan representative office abroad to apply f visa; however, the representative office abroad retains the power to de ex officio whether to issue the visa. Article 3 The term "accounting firm" in these Directions refers to an accounting organized in accordance with the Certified Public Accountant Act. Article 4 Foreign students coming to Taiwan for an internship shall be limited to those enrolled at an overseas school that is listed on the Reference Li of Foreign Higher Educational Institutions compiled by the Ministry of Education. Article 5 A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student;</pre>	Content :	These Directions are specially adopted to facilitate internships in the Republic of China ("Taiwan") by talented foreign persons at the level of junior college or higher during their academic study years, to promote mutual understanding and pave the way for future recruitment of talent. Article 2 An accounting firm may apply to the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC) Executive Yuan for foreign students at the level of junior college or
The term "accounting firm" in these Directions refers to an accounting organized in accordance with the Certified Public Accountant Act. Article 4 Foreign students coming to Taiwan for an internship shall be limited to those enrolled at an overseas school that is listed on the Reference Li of Foreign Higher Educational Institutions compiled by the Ministry of Education. Article 5 A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student;
 Foreign students coming to Taiwan for an internship shall be limited to those enrolled at an overseas school that is listed on the Reference Li of Foreign Higher Educational Institutions compiled by the Ministry of Education. Article 5 A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student; 		The term "accounting firm" in these Directions refers to an accounting firmorganized in accordance with the Certified Public Accountant Act.
A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the stude may not change internship host unit without permission. Article 6 To apply for a foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship, the accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student;		Education.
accounting firm shall file an application accompanied with the followin documents to the FSC in advance of the internship: (1) application form; (2) basic data form for the foreign student;		A foreign student coming to Taiwan for an internship may not change the content of the internship plan. During the internship period, the student may not change internship host unit without permission.
		(3) internship plan (shall specify the content of the internship, location start and end dates, internship advisor, internship expenditures, grants,

(5) a certificate of school enrollment of the foreign student. Article 7 The maximum period for which permission may be granted for an application for foreign student to come to Taiwan for an internship is 6 months. If at the end of the period there is a need to continue the internship, one extension may be applied for on a one-time only basis, for a period that may not exceed the originally permitted period. A unit that wishes to apply for an extension under the preceding paragraph shall submit a statement that the student has performed well in the internship and has not violated any laws, regulations, or rules. Article 8 A foreign student coming to Taiwan on an internship shall scrupulously abide by all laws, regulations, and rules of Taiwan, and may not engage in work that is inconsistent with the content of the internship.

Data Source : Financial Supervisory Commission Laws and Regulations Retrieving System