Article 42

The head office of a foreign surveyor company shall appropriate funds of not less than NT$2 million exclusively for the business operation of each branch office established according to its business plan.

Article 43

The head office of a foreign surveyor company shall, within six months of permission, remit the funds for business operations of its branch office according to the preceding article, and apply to the competent authority in charge of company registration for recognition and registration of branch office establishment.

For those foreign surveyor companies that fail to apply for registration with the competent authority within the time period prescribed in the preceding paragraph, or fail to obtain approval from the competent authority in charge of company registration, the competent authority may revoke the permission.

Those that have completed the recognition and registration procedures under the first paragraph hereof shall, after depositing a bond and purchasing professional liability insurance, apply for and obtain a practice license from the competent authority by submitting a Branch Office Incorporation Registration Form and the fee as set by the competent authority. Those that have obtained a practice license shall carry out business registration in accordance with relevant acts and regulations.

Article 44

A foreign insurance surveyor institution establishing a branch office to operate business within the territory of the Republic of China shall employ at least one person holding a Republic of China surveyor's practice license of the same type to practice the business.

Article 45

Provisions of other related chapters of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to matters regarding foreign insurance surveyors on which this chapter is silent.

Chapter 7 Supplementary Provisions
