13. Factual evidence shows that the person has engaged in, or been involved in, other dishonest or improper activities which indicate that she/he is unfit to serve as a responsible person of an issuer.

In the event that the government or a juristic person is a shareholder (of an issuer), the preceding paragraph shall apply mutatis mutandis to its authorized representative or other individual(s) designated by it to serve as a director or a supervisor on its behalf.

If any of the situations mentioned in Paragraph 1 hereof occurs after the responsible person of an issuer takes office, the responsible person shall, ipso facto, be discharged from the office.

Article 5

Where the responsible person of an issuer has any situation that should result in an ipso facto discharge according to these Regulations, the responsible person shall inform the issuer immediately.

An issuer should take proactive action after learning that its responsible person has a situation that should result in his/her ipso facto discharge, file a report with the competent authority, and notify the Ministry of Economic Affairs to annul or cancel related registration.

Article 6

The responsible person of an issuer shall not hold any position concurrently at any of the establishments below, unless such establishment has an investment relationship with the issuer:

1. Another issuer;
2. An establishment having financial or business dealings with the issuer and the dollar amount involved reaches more than 30% of the issuer's business revenue from the previous year.

Where an establishment mentioned in subparagraph 2 of the first paragraph hereof has any of the following situations, the responsible person of an establishment may act concurrently as a director or supervisor of the issuer:

1. A shareholder of the issuer;
2. An affiliated enterprise of the issuer;
3. A shareholder of the issuer's parent company that fully owns the issuer; or
4. An affiliated enterprise of the issuer's parent company that fully owns the issuer.

Article 7

The manager of an issuer shall not concurrently hold any paid position at another company or institution, except for acting concurrently as a director or supervisor of a subsidiary of the issuer.

Where the issuer's paid-up capital exceeds NTD 2 billion, the chairperson may not act concurrently as the general manager. However, this restriction does not apply under any of the following conditions if the competent authority provides approval:

1. Where the chairperson or general manager resigns and can no longer perform duties;
2. Where the chairperson or general manager is replaced or dismissed by the competent authority;
3. Where the chairperson or general manager is subject to other major incidents and can no longer perform duties;

Where the issuer applies to the competent authority to allow the chairperson to act concurrently as the general manager based on the proviso in the preceding paragraph, the competent authority may approve a maximum period of three months in which the chairperson may act concurrently as the general manager. The issuer may apply to the competent authority for one extension one month prior to the expiry of the period.

Where an electronic stored value card issuer violates the restrictions on concurrent posts in the two preceding paragraphs, the competent authority may impose a deadline and order the electronic stored value card issuer to make adjustments; where adjustments are not made for legitimate reasons, the responsible person shall be discharged.

Article 8

The concurrent services of the responsible person of the issuer and the number of concurrent posts shall not impact the effective execution of the responsible person's original duties and concurrent duties. No conflicts or interests or violation of internal controls of the issuer shall be permitted. The interests of card holders and shareholders must also be protected.
