responsible person's representative.

6. A list of managerial officers, actuaries, underwriters, claims adjusters, and other key personnel, and documentary proof of their qualifications.

7. Branch operating rules and operating procedures.

8. Other documents as required by the competent authority.

If the application documents in the preceding paragraph are in a foreign language, a Chinese translation shall be attached for each.

Where there is legitimate reason, an application for extension of a deadline specified in paragraph 1 may be filed prior to the deadline; an extension may not be longer than three months, and shall be limited to one time. Where an extension has not been approved, the competent authority may revoke its establishment permit.

The operating rules of paragraph 1, subparagraph 7 shall cover the following matters:

1. Organizational structure and department functions.

2. Staffing, management, and training of personnel.

3. Internal control system.

4. Business principles and policies.

5. Operations manual and segregation of powers and duties.

6. Other matters.

Article 14

Where the head office of a foreign insurance enterprise already has one or more branches in the ROC and applies to establish an additional branch here, the competent authority shall either deny the application or require that the applicant close a branch elsewhere if any of the following applies to an existing branch:

1. Has been sanctioned in the past year for a material violation of an insurance act or regulation.

2. The competent authority has issued an official reprimand for a deficiency but the situation has not shown concrete improvement.

3. The responsible person has received a final and unappealable conviction in the past year for willful commission of an occupational crime.

4. Has violated Article 21 by failing to increase capital within a prescribed period of time.

5. The business plan of the branch to be additionally established is clearly inadequate or unsound, or the qualifications of the intended responsible person do not meet the requirements set out in the Regulations Governing Qualification Requirement and Concurrent Serving Restrictions and Matters for Compliance by the Responsible Persons of Insurance Enterprises.

6. Other facts indicate a likelihood that establishing an additional branch would impede sound business management, or would not be in keeping with the requirements of policy on insurance.

Article 17

Where any of the following applies to the responsible person of a foreign insurance enterprise, the competent authority may order that the person be replaced within a prescribed period of time:

1. He or she does not meet the requirements of the Regulations Governing Qualification Requirement and Concurrent Serving Restrictions and Matters for Compliance by the Responsible Persons of Insurance Enterprises.

2. He or she has violated ROC insurance law.

3. He or she has violated the preceding Article by failing to make a required filing with the competent authority.

4. There are other facts which show that he or she is unfit for the position.

When a foreign insurance enterprise replaces its responsible person in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, or it replaces the person of its own accord, the newly appointed person may not assume the position until he/she has submitted to the competent authority the documents required under the Regulations Governing Required Qualifications for Responsible Persons of Insurance Enterprises and the competent authority has reviewed and approved the appointment.
