The definition of "qualified institutional investor" as referred to in Article 2-1 up to paragraph 1 of this article, and the scope of its work, shall be as announced by the FSC.

Article 6-1

Associated persons of a SITE engaged in business activities set out in Article 2, paragraph 2, subparagraphs 1 to 5 shall, except for a fund manager, who shall meet the qualifications set out in Article 5, possess one of the following qualifications:

1. Is qualified as a securities investment analyst in accordance with the Regulations Governing Responsible Persons and Associated Persons of Securities Investment Consulting Enterprises.
2. Has passed an examination for associated persons of securities investment trust and consulting enterprises administered by an institution engaged by the SITCA.
3. Has passed a senior securities specialist examination held by an institution engaged by a securities dealers association or has obtained certification of passage of such an examination issued by the former competent authority for securities.
4. Has one year or more of work experience serving as a manager of domestic or foreign funds.
5. Has passed a professional examination on trust business held by a trust association or a professional financial training institute recognized by a trust association, and has also passed an examination, held by an institution engaged by the SITCA, on acts and regulations (legal compliance) pertaining to securities investment trust and consulting.
6. Is a graduate of a domestic or foreign school at the level of college or higher recognized by the Ministry of Education or has an equivalent level of education, and has served for three years or more as an associated person of one or more securities or futures institutions or trust enterprises.

A person who, in the position of associated person, was assisting in carrying on the business activities set out in Article 2, paragraph 2, subparagraphs 1 to 5 before the issuance of these Regulations as amended, shall obtain one of the qualifications set out hereunder within two years following the amendment and issuance date, or, failing which, the person may not serve in that position, and the SITCA shall void the registration of that person.

Article 6-2

A chief compliance officer shall possess the qualifications specified in Article 4-1, paragraph 1 and be assigned a position at a level at least equivalent to department supervisor.

A chief compliance officer or associated person who does not meet the specified qualification requirements shall correct the failure by 30 June 2008, failing which, such a person may not serve in that position and the SITCA shall void the registration of that person.

Article 6-3

If a SITE concurrently engages in futures trust business and, without having issued a futures trust fund, uses assets of a securities investment trust fund to trade in securities-related products above the percentage set by the FSC at which an application for approval is required to be made, the supervisor of its investment research department, the manager of the fund, and at least one of its internal auditors shall possess the qualifications required by Article 5 of the Regulations Governing Responsible Persons and Associated Persons of Futures Commission Merchants.

Article 7

Unless otherwise provided by an act or regulation, the general manager of a SITE and all assistant general managers, deputy assistant general managers, and managers thereof, as well as managers, department supervisors, and associated persons of a SITE's branch unit, shall serve as full-time employees. Before such personnel begin performing their duties, they shall be registered with the SITCA by the employing SITE, and no such person may engage in business unless they have been registered.

Registration under the preceding paragraph shall be prohibited under any of the following circumstances; if registration has already been made, it shall be voided:

1. Any circumstance set out in Article 68 of the SITC Act.
2. Failure to meet the qualification requirements set out hereunder.
3. Violation of Article 8.

A SITE shall register any change in personnel specified in paragraph 1 with the SITCA within five business days from the day following such change.

Before completing registration of the change, the SITE shall remain liable for the conduct of that person.

Article 8

An internal auditor of a SITE may not engage in any business outside of the scope of his/her registered work activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the position of internal auditor for securities investment trust business that is concurrently conducted by an other-industry enterprise may be concurrently held by a registered internal auditor of such other-industry enterprise.

The legal compliance function of the SITE may not be concurrently performed by any person carrying on any of the business activities under Article 2, paragraph 2, subparagraphs 1 to 6.

SITE personnel may not concurrently serve as associated persons engaged in research and analysis or investment or trading decision-making while serving as associated persons engaged in trading execution, and vice-versa. SITE personnel may not concurrently serve as associated persons engaged in investment or trading decision-making with respect to the offering of a securities investment trust fund while serving as personnel engaged in investment or trading decision-making with respect to the private offering of a securities investment trust fund or futures trust fund, or to discretionary investment or discretionary futures trading business, and vice versa. However, if the requirements of paragraph 6 are met, such personnel may concurrently serve as associated persons engaged in investment or trading decision-making with respect to discretionary investment business and vice versa.

If the SITE currently operates securities investment consulting business, none of its associated persons may concurrently engage in investment or trading decision-making for its securities investment trust fund while serving as a securities investment analyst for the concurrently operated securities investment consulting business, and vice versa. However, if the circumstance of paragraph 6 are met, an associated person engaged in investment or trading decision-making with respect to the offering of a securities investment trust fund may concurrently serve as a securities investment analyst for the concurrently operated securities investment consulting business, and vice versa.

When a SITE meets the following requirements, the associated persons engaged in investment or trading decision-making with respect to the offering of a securities investment trust fund may concurrently serve as personnel engaged in investment or trading decision-making with respect to discretionary investment or as securities investment analysts for the concurrently operated securities investment consulting business, and vice versa.

1. The customers of the discretionary investment business or securities investment consulting business are qualified institutional investors as specified in Article 4, paragraph 2 of the Financial Consumer Protection Act.

2. The scope of investments or trading for the discretionary investment account, and the scope of analysis, opinions, or recommendations for securities investment by the concurrently operated securities investment consulting business shall be limited to the major investment targets and region of the fund that it manages, and the investment strategy shall uniformly be active management strategy or passive management strategy.

3. The internal control system of the enterprise has already adopted operational principles for effective prevention of conflict of interests in order to ensure fair treatment of all clients.

Article 9

The particulars to be registered with respect to the responsible persons, department supervisors, branch unit managers, and associated persons of SITES shall be prescribed by the SITCA and implemented after ratification by the FSC; the same also applies to any amendments thereto.

Article 10

Associated persons of a SITE shall participate in pre-job training and on-the-job training held by an institution(s) designated by the FSC or the former Securities and Futures Commission, Ministry of Finance.

Article 11

A newly employed associated person of a SITE, or one who has been re-employed as such after departing for two years or more, shall participate in pre-job training within one-half year of commencing work; those already on the job shall participate on-the-job training during the term of their employment.

Article 12

A person who fails to attend the training required under Article 10 or who fails to pass the training and undergoes the training again within one year but still fails to pass, may not act as an associated person, and the SITCA shall void his or her registration as an associated person.

Article 13

A responsible person, department supervisor, branch unit manager, or other associated person or employee of a SITE shall exercise the care and fiduciary duty of a good administrator, and abide by principles of good faith and integrity, in performing his or her duties.

Unless otherwise provided by an act or regulation, a person referred to in the preceding paragraph may not engage in any of the following conduct:

1. Divulging information learned on the job to any other person, or using such information for trading in securities or securities-related products.
2. When utilizing a securities investment trust fund to trade in securities or securities-related products, purchasing or selling securities for the benefit of themselves or any other person or, without legitimate reason, engaging in cross-trading with investment funds entrusted to them.
3. Engaging in false or deceptive conduct or other conduct sufficient to cause mistaken belief by another.

4. When utilizing a securities investment trust fund to trade in securities or securities-related products, failing to re-allocate into the fund assets any refunds of handling fees by, or other interests/benefits paid by, securities firms, futures commission merchants, or other trading counterparties.
 5. Promoting the sale of beneficial interest certificates by agreeing upon or providing specific benefits or considerations or by bearing losses.
 6. Accepting money or other interests/benefits in exchange for transferring shareholder meeting proxies, or for exercising [in a certain manner] the voting rights of shares held by the securities investment trust fund.
 7. When utilizing a securities investment trust fund to trade in securities or securities-related products, attempting to inflate or deflate the trading price of any certain security on the securities exchange market, or engaging in any other conduct which could injure the rights or interests of the investors of the securities investment trust fund.
 8. When utilizing a securities investment trust fund to trade in securities or securities-related products, changing an executed trading order from the account of the fund to their own or another person's account or a discretionary trading account, or from their own or other person's account or a discretionary trading account to the account of the fund.
 9. Recommending trading in a particular stock or making judgments or forecasts about the future price of a particular stock in a public venue or in the [mass] media.
 10. Using non-full-time personnel to solicit customers or providing unreasonable commissions.
 11. Investing in securities or trading in securities-related products in the capacity of an agent of a client.
 12. Any other conduct that would adversely affect rights or interests of beneficial owners or customers or the operation of the SITE.
- Unless otherwise required by law or by the FSC, personnel referred to in paragraph 1 shall maintain the confidentiality of beneficial owner and customer information, their trading histories, and other related information.

Article 14

Unless otherwise provided by an act or regulation, from the time that a SITE decides to utilize a securities investment trust fund to trade in a certain corporate stock or equity derivative until such time as the securities investment trust fund no longer holds that corporate stock or equity derivative, no responsible person, department supervisor, branch unit manager, or fund manager of the SITE, or any of such person's spouse, minor child, or other person in whose name that person transacts, may trade in such corporate stock or equity derivative.

A responsible person, department supervisor, branch unit manager, or fund manager of a SITE shall report to the employing SITE on the circumstances in which, and if such a person or any related party thereof has traded in corporate stocks or equity derivatives.

The scope of information to be reported pursuant to the preceding paragraph, and of eligible investment instruments, shall be prescribed by the FSC.

The term "related party" in paragraph 2 refers to any of the following:

1. In the case of a natural person, the person's spouse, blood relatives within the second degree of kinship, or any enterprise of which the person or the person's spouse is a responsible person.
2. In the case of a juristic person, a juristic person controlled from the same source or with which the juristic person has a relationship of mutual control.

The provisions from paragraph 2 to the preceding paragraph shall apply mutatis mutandis to any of the SITE's investment managers who conduct discretionary investment business.

Article 15

A responsible person of a SITE, and its department supervisors, branch unit managers, or fund managers, or spouses thereof, when acting as a director, supervisor, or managerial officer of a securities issuing company, or as a shareholder holding 5 percent or more of the total issued shares of a securities issuing company, may not participate in decision making regarding trades when the SITE utilizes the securities investment trust fund to trade in the securities of such issuing company. Unless otherwise provided by an act or regulation, a SITE's responsible person(s), department supervisors, branch unit managers, or fund managers, or the SITE's shareholder's representative in any share issuing company from which the SITE purchases stock, may not assume a position as a director, supervisor, or managerial officer of an issuing company from which the securities investment trust fund purchases stock. Unless otherwise provided by an act or regulation, a SITE's responsible person(s), department supervisors, or branch unit managers may not invest in any other SITE or concurrently act as a director, supervisor, or managerial officer of another SITE or a SICE or a securities firm. For the purpose of determining those holding 5 percent or more of a company's total issued shares as referred to in paragraph 1, shares held by a shareholder's spouse or minor children, or held on that shareholder's behalf under others' names, shall be included in calculation of that shareholder's holdings.

Article 16

Where a director or supervisor of a SITE is a corporate shareholder, the provisions of these Regulations concerning directors and supervisors shall apply mutatis mutandis to the performance of duties by its representative or designated representative.

Where a position of director or supervisor in a SITE is held by a representative of a corporate shareholder, the provisions of these Regulations concerning directors and supervisors shall apply mutatis mutandis to the corporate shareholder.

Article 17

In the event of leave, suspension of performance of business duties, or absence due to any other cause of a manager or associated person of a SITE, the SITE shall appoint a person with equivalent qualification to act as the deputy thereof; such person may not violate any provision of Article 3, paragraph 4 or Article 8.

With respect to deputations referred to in the preceding paragraph, the SITE shall prepare a special registry to record the reasons and periods of deputations as well as the names and duties of deputies, to be kept on file for future reference.

Article 18

Responsible persons, associated persons, and other employees of SITEs are also prohibited from taking any act, in the course of exercising their duties, that an enterprise is prohibited from taking under Article 19, paragraph 1, or Article 59 of the SITC Act, or under any other act, regulation, or contract.

Acts taken by responsible persons, associated persons, and other employees of SITEs when conducting securities investment trust business, discretionary investment business, and other relevant business as approved by the FSC, where civil liability is involved, are presumed to be acts within the scope of the authorization by the enterprise.

Article 19

If a responsible person or an associated person of a SITE is suspected of violating the SITC Act or any other applicable act or regulation, or if there is any inquiry about such person's performance of duties, he/she shall appear before the FSC to give explanations or provide a written report within the period specified by the FSC.

Article 20

A responsible person or associated person of a SITE may not trade in any closed-end fund issued by the SITE in his or her own name or in the name of a spouse, minor son or daughter, or other person in whose name he or she transacts.

Persons under the preceding paragraph subscribing to an open-end fund issued by the employer shall be restricted from applying for redemption of [fund units] during a minimum holding period.

Unless otherwise provided by the FSC or contract, the minimum holding period referred to in the preceding paragraph is one month, counted from one of the following dates:

1. In the case of a newly offered fund, the date of establishment of the fund.
2. In the case of an existing fund, the date of the given subscription.

Article 21

Where any of the following applies to a responsible person or associated person of a SITE, the FSC will give the person a reward or commendation:

1. Has achieved significant accomplishments contributing toward the sound administration and development of securities investment trust business, and toward promotion of integrated management in the asset management services market.
2. Has done research writing that contributed creative ideas regarding the development of securities investment trust business or the execution of securities investment trust business, and the ideas have been adopted and implemented.
3. Has reported illegality in the market which has been proved to be true.
4. Has made concrete achievements through zealously serving public interests and exercising team spirit.
5. Other achievements that merit commendation.

Article 21-1

Where an other-industry enterprise concurrently conducts securities investment trust business, the supervisory and associated persons of the duly established department dedicated to such business, may not handle business beyond the scope of the dedicated department, nor may their functions be performed by any department supervisor or associated persons other than one registered as such for that dedicated department, unless the requirements of paragraph 6 are met.

The provisions of Articles 2-1, 3, 7, and 9 apply mutatis mutandis with respect to the chairperson and general manager of any other-industry enterprise, except for a trust enterprise, that concurrently conducts securities investment trust business.

Where an other-industry enterprise concurrently conducts securities investment trust business, the department supervisors and associated persons, except for the internal audit officer, of such enterprise who engage in business specified in Article 2, paragraph 2, subparagraphs 1 to 7 shall possess the qualifications set out in these Regulations.

The provisions of Articles 13 to 16, and Article 18 up to the preceding article, apply mutatis mutandis with respect to the responsible persons of any other-industry enterprise, except for a trust enterprise, that concurrently conducts securities investment trust business.

The provisions of Articles 13 to 16, and Article 18 up to the preceding article, apply mutatis mutandis with respect to the responsible persons of any other-industry enterprise, except for a trust enterprise, that concurrently conducts securities investment trust business.

Where an other-industry enterprise concurrently conducts securities investment trust business, the provisions of Article 7, Article 8, paragraphs 2 to 6, Articles 9 to 15, and Article 17 up to the preceding article, apply mutatis mutandis with respect to the department supervisors and associated persons of such an enterprise that engages in business specified in Article 2, paragraph 2, subparagraphs 1 to 7.

Article 22

These Regulations shall enter into force from the date of issuance.
